Remarks and Recommendations of the Inspection Team

The inspection team visited the college as per letter no. 006/Affili/328/AKU/2020-193 on 23/01/2020 from 2.00 p.m. The team was overall satisfied with the institution. The team inspected infrastructural and instructional resources available there. The different infrastructural facilities were spread out in separate buildings in the campus. The institution met the requirements as per NCTE Regulations 2014 and the university format. The inspection team would like to make the following observations and suggestions for the betterment of the institution.

1. Two more qualified teachers in Mathematics and Science should be recruited as per NCTE Regulations 2014.
2. There should be a departmental library besides the Central library.
3. Needs to set up biometric attendance system
4. Peer reviewed / UGC approved educational journals should be subscribed.
5. Smart boards may be installed in the classrooms.
6. Teachers should be encouraged to attend orientation/refresher courses.
